NORTH ROME CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

The mission of North Rome Christian School is to provide a unique Christ-centered education that prepares young people to impact their world for Jesus.

North Rome Christian School views Christian education as placing God at the center of all academics and activities. Knowing Jesus Christ as personal Savior and Lord is essential to life, and therefore, seeks to present Him in every program. (Col. 1:9) It is extremely important that we train the entire student – mental, social, physical, spiritual, and intellectual. We want to develop a specific set of Biblical truths and principles by which students lives will be shaped, as well as creating in students the ability and desire all that is around them in light of these scriptural truths.

The Bible has the primary place in the curriculum at NRCS. This integration of sacred text with academic disciplines is necessary for the total development of the student.

HISTORY

The North Rome Christian School was established in 1983. The school began with 14 students in kindergarten through 4th grade. Miss Lori Blue was our first teacher. The school presently has an enrollment of 130 students and has a total teaching staff of 14 full time teachers. Grades Kindergarten through 12th are presently offered and extra activities include chapel, music, art, drama, library, physical education, soccer, basketball and volleyball, cross country and track.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission statement of the North Rome Christian School is to reinforce Christian family values and provide outstanding educational programs that prepare students to excel academically and motivate them to develop a Christian lifestyle that results in service to God and mankind.

VISION STATEMENT

Striving to attain excellence in education and Christlikeness

STATEMENT OF FAITH

North Rome Christian School subscribes to the Statement of Faith of the Association of Christian Schools International as printed below.

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the ONLY infallible authoritative, inerrant Word of God. (I Timothy 3:15, II Peter 1:21)

We believe there is one God, eternally existent in three persons – Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Genesis 1:1, Matthew 26:19, John 10:30)

We believe in the deity of Christ. (John 10:33); His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14, Matthew 1:23, Luke 1:35); His sinless life (Hebrews 4:15, Hebrews 7:26); His miracles (John 2:11); His vicarious and atoning death (I Corinthians 15:3, Ephesians 1:7, Hebrews 2:9); His resurrection (John 11:25, I Corinthians 15:4); His ascension to the right hand of the Father (Mark 16:19); His personal return in power and glory. (Acts 1:11, Rev. 19:11)

We believe in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature; and that men are justified on the single ground of faith in the shed blood of Christ and that only by God's grace through faith alone we are saved. (John 3: 16-19, John 5:24, Romans 3:23, Romans 5: 28-29)

We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they are saved unto the resurrection of life, and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation (John 5: 28-29)

We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ. (Romans 8: 9, I Corinthians 12: 12-13, Galatians 3: 26-28)

We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life. (Romans 8: 13-14, I Corinthians 3: 16, I Corinthians 6: 19-20, Ephesians 4: 30, 5: 18)

We believe that God wonderfully and immutable creates each person as male and female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God (Gen. 1:26-27)

We believe that the term “marriage” has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in scripture (Gen. 2:18-25)

PURPOSE

The primary purpose of our school is to train the student in the Christian way of life and to give the student a good general education in the light of the principles of God’s Word.

GOAL

The goal of North Rome Christian School is to help students to develop into whole persons having the characteristics modeled by Jesus Christ, who grew in wisdom, in stature, in favor with God, and in favor with man. (Luke 2:52).

OBJECTIVES

Intellectual - I Cor. 11:7; 2 Tim. 2:15; Luke 2:52; Deut. 6:4-9

1. We seek to provide our children’s growth in knowledge and related skills:

- a. By offering a program of study appropriate for each grade level to enable students to acquire proficiency in the fundamental communication process of reading, writing, speaking, listening, understanding, and critical thinking.
- b. By teaching for an understanding of and appreciation for the sciences, mathematics, and technology and their appropriate uses.
- c. By guiding students to integrate discovered truth and revealed truth.
- d. By helping students to apply themselves to disciplined study, wholesome activities and responsibilities.
- e. By guiding students to a fuller knowledge and appreciation of the Bible as the source of all truth.
- f. By emphasizing the wise use and conservation of natural resources.

Physical Growth - I Cor. 6:19; I Tim. 4:8; Prov. 4:20-22; John 9:1-3

2. We seek to help students gain self-understanding and respect:

- a. By emphasizing the unique worth of each individual created in the image of God.
- b. By encouraging acceptable expressions of emotions and the exercising of Christian graces.
- c. By teaching the significance of the family and the meaning and value of the various stages of life.
- d. By promoting good health and hygienic practices and appreciation of the body as the temple of God.
- e. By giving moral training through example, teaching and provision of opportunities for decision making.
- f. By providing opportunities for students to explore and develop gifts of creative expression and wholesome personal interests.
- g. By sharing knowledge and appreciation for our history as people of God.

Spiritual - 2 Tim. 3:16-17; Rom. 3:23; Rom. 6:23; John 3:3; Acts 17:31

3. We seek to nurture students in Christian faith:

- a. By teaching students principles of the Christian faith at appropriate grade levels.
- b. By emphasizing the value and need of a personal faith in God, trust in Christ as Savior and obedience to the Holy Spirit.
- c. By integrating Christ and Scripture with other learning and group or personal experiences.
- d. By emphasizing the importance of both believing and practicing the Word of God.
- e. By helping students see the needs of humanity and how these relate to the Christian faith and call to Christian service and mission.
- f. By providing opportunities for fellowship, obedience and sharing through which the Holy Spirit can operate freely within the school as a Christian community.

Social - Matt. 5:13-16; Psalm 133:1-3; I John 1:7

4. We seek to develop in student's social awareness and involvement in:

- a. By providing a social atmosphere within the school that is accepting and supporting of each individual.
- b. By promoting responsible citizenship and appropriate responses to the varied forms of authority in life.

- c. By emphasizing respect for the rights and opinions of others.
- d. By fostering an appreciation for our nation and government, with the understanding that national, cultural and racial barriers cease to exist in Christ.
- e. By encouraging responsible participation in the larger Christian community, including family, school, church, and other appropriate community organizations.
- f. By helping students understand and practice stewardship in all areas of life.
- g. By placing primary emphasis on cooperative ventures and experiences rather than on competition.
- h. By acquainting students with the world wide mission of the church.

Emotional - Col. 4:5; Gal. 5:22-23

5. We desire to enhance understanding of each person's individuality:

- a. The student will learn to apply Biblical principles in handling failure, success, stress, and emotions.
- b. The student will know that each individual is a unique person of worth because each is a special creation of God and a recipient of His love.
- c. The student will learn to apply Biblical principles in developing and accepting a realistic, wholesome self-image.

SCHOOL PHILOSOPHY

- The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge (Proverbs 9:10) and all knowledge has its foundation in the ultimate standard of truth, the Bible.
- Children are an inheritance from the Lord (Psalm 127:3) and actually belong to God, as do all good things that God gives His people. Children are a trust placed in the parent's care to bring up in the discipline and admonition of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4).
- God as creator and sustainer of this universe created man in His own image. But because of Adam's disobedience, man inherited a sinful nature, and when left to himself, he will not naturally do what is right.
- Our goal is to teach children academically and spiritually through our curriculum. Children, therefore need to be taught. We know what a child needs educationally and their needs in order to build character. We determine the curriculum and set the standards; there are indeed absolutes that need to be taught.
- God has revealed Himself in a general way in His world and universe, and in a specific way in the Bible. By faith in God's Son Jesus Christ, man's soul is regenerated and brought back into fellowship with God.
- The Christian school should provide an atmosphere for knowing Christ personally, for nurturing Christian growth, and for encouraging a commitment to Christian service.
- We believe discipline is Scriptural. Children need discipline; it gives them security within bounds. Parents appreciate discipline, and a teacher's efficiency is greatly increased by good discipline in the classroom.
- We believe that children need to learn to honor and respect parents and others in authority, that a man's word is bond, that they should be proud of America, and that the free enterprise system is still the best system.

- The child's home, church, and school experience and training should complement each other in promoting academic, spiritual, physical and social growth and should be preparation for life: a life of dependence upon and fellowship with God and service to man.

LIFESTYLE STATEMENT

North Rome Christian School (NRCS) is a non-profit Christian school representing Jesus Christ throughout the evangelical Christian community. NRCS requires its employees to be born-again Christians (believers in Jesus Christ) and living their lives as Christian role models (Romans 10:9-10; I Timothy 4:12). Employees will conduct themselves in a way that will not raise questions regarding their Christian testimonies. A Christian lifestyle should reflect the Biblical perspective of integrity and appropriate personal and family relationships, business conduct, and moral behavior. An employee is expected to demonstrate a teachable spirit, an ability to share love for others, a willingness to live contentedly under authority, and a commitment to follow the Matthew 18 principle when an issue arises with fellow employees or management.

Moral misconduct, including but not limited to homosexuality, heterosexuality, sexual orientation, gender expression, or identity, or living together outside of marriage, as defined by scripture, violates the bona fide occupational requirement of employees being Christian role models. Employees acknowledge that the unique roles of male and female relationships are clearly defined in Scripture (Romans 1:21-24; I Corinthians 6:9-20). Personnel will maintain a lifestyle based on Biblical standards of conduct. Failure to do so may result in a reprimand, or in some cases, dismissal from employment. There are additional grounds whereby an employee may be dismissed from NRCS. It is the goal of NRCS that each employee have a lifestyle where "[Jesus] might have the pre-eminence" (Colossians 1:18).

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

Many things are not stated as "rules" but are expected from all faculty. The following is to serve as a reminder of naturally expected goals of professional NRCS faculty members:

1. Close personal walk with Jesus Christ
2. Sensitivity to spiritual needs of the students
3. Consistent prayer life
4. Loving concern for needs of Staff
5. Professional growth: Spiritual/academic
6. Strive for great attendance
7. Involvement in activities beyond the classroom

ON THE JOB

Each staff person employed at North Rome Christian School represents the School to the parents, children, visitors, friends, and friends. Impressions are formed by how employees conduct themselves. For this reason, each employee should be courteous and considerate, wear clean clothing, have well-groomed hair, and take pride in his/her appearance. The employee will strive at all times to understand, appreciate, love, and serve the pupils entrusted to him/her for instruction and the colleagues they work with, and will to the best of his/her ability provide for their fullest spiritual, intellectual, physical, and emotional development. Employees are encouraged to learn as much as possible about North Rome Christian School so that they can accurately reflect its aims and activities. If there are questions about North Rome, please do not hesitate to ask the Administrator.
